

Up River

PRODUCTIONS®

Tell us why you love New Hope! Up River Productions, Inc., is working on the release of the upcoming New Hope documentary, EMBRACEABLE YOU. Our newest project is to create a companion book of stories, poems, and remembrances written by people living or working in the New Hope area. We'd like to know how you came to be in the area and how and why you came to love it. We are especially interested in personal stories and experiences that typify the positive aspects of the New Hope, Bucks County community.

Joel Roberts, owner of Mechanic Street MUGs is spearheading the initiative by assembling a compilation of writings by those who may live, work, visit or just love New Hope. Anyone interested in contributing their story, essay or poem is invited to send their work to Up River Productions, Inc., PO Box 484, New Hope, PA 18938 or email their submission to: NewHopetheFilm@gmail.com. Submissions should be no longer than 3,000 words. Please include the following contact information with your submission: Your full name, mailing address, email address and daytime phone number. Photographs to accompany your story are also welcome. Submissions should be received by the extended deadline date of May 15, 2009.

All stories submitted will be read with the potential to be selected for the publication to coincide with the premier of the documentary EMBRACEABLE YOU, now in production. For more information on the mission and story behind Embraceable You, as well as Up River Productions, go to <http://www.up-river-productions.com>.
